

Preposition Phrases - Follow on Activity

Now see if you can use some of the prepositions that you have collected to compose sentences that describes settings.

Use your imagination to think of an interesting setting and write the sort of sentence that might make a good opening for a story.

Try to start your sentences with one of the prepositions you collected – make them as imaginative as you can.

Here are some examples of the sorts of sentences that you could write using prepositions:

- Outside of the town, in the dark forest, a small gloomy house was hidden in shadow under overhanging trees.
- Beside a row of expensive shops, a women sat inside a large silver car.
- Above steep cliffs, the castle towered over the crashing waves below.

Write your sentences here: