

Sentence Construction (Follow-On Activity)

The words that you collected are conjunctions. You can choose from these conjunctions to start each sentence below with a subordinate clause (making a fronted adverbial) and then use your imagination to finish the sentence.

For example:

“Whenever Jethro the Giant was hungry, his stomach rumbled like a small earthquake.”

“Although Pedro the Pirate was happy, he still made his prisoners walk the plank.”

Pedro the Pirate was happy,

Jethro the Giant was hungry,

Benny the Bulldog went for a walk,

Terrible Tabitha was in a bad mood,

Wanda the Witch was casting her spells,

Policeman Pete caught a burglar,
